MRS. EVERETT NOURSE IS PARTY HONOREE

The lovliest party of the season was given at the Community Church last Thursday when Mrs. Everett Nourse was the honoree. Secret invitations in the form of baby bibs had gone out two weeks before and over fifty guests arrived at the appointed hour laden with bundles that made the room a veritable babyland.

Mrs. A. Fruhling was the artist behind the scenes who had devised hundreds of frolicing lambs that leaped over baby pillows and snuggled in pink crepe paper. Lace table cloths and pink streamers, candles and silver tea service added to the gaiety of the refreshment hour.

Lively games stirred the wits of the guests to provide Mrs. Nourse with friendly information and advice in rearing young hopefuls.

Mrs. Walter Brehme sang the appropriate cradle song Honey Lamb.

Many surprises interspersed the afternoon, one of them being the entrance of Mrs. Dunmire from Oakland, who is Mrs. Nourse's mother, and Mrs .Hilda Bauquier, out of town guest.

Another surprise was when two birthday cakes with lighted candles made their appearance and Happy Birthday was sung to Julia Brehme and Dolores Lopez.

Mrs. L. Williams was co-hostess with Mrs. W. Brehme and Mrs. A. Fruhling.
